LOK SABHA

The following Bill was introduced in Lok Sabha on the 13th December, 1978:—

BILL No. 173 OF 1978

A Bill to extend the Indian Standards Institution (Certification Marks) Act, 1952, to the Kohima, Wokha, Zunheboto, Mokokchung and Phek Districts in the State of Nagaland

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Indian Standards Institution (Certification Marks) Extension to Kohima, Wokha, Zunheboto, Mokokchung and Phek Districts Act, 1978. Short title.

2. The Indian Standards Institution (Certification Marks) Act, 1952, shall, as from the commencement of this Act, extend to the Kohima, Wokha, Zunheboto, Mokokchung and Phek districts in the State of Nagaland and shall come into force therein on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint. Extension of Act 36 of 1952 to Kohima, Wokha, Zunheboto, Mokokchung and Phek districts in Nagaland.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Indian Standards Institution (Certification Marks) Act, 1952, does not apply to the Kohima, Wokha, Zunheboto, Mokokchung and Phek districts of the State of Nagaland because those districts formed an area which was governed by paragraph 19 of the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution of India. Sub-paragraph (1)(a) of that paragraph provides that until a District Council is constituted for an autonomous district, no Act of Parliament or of the Legislature of the State shall apply to any such area unless the Governor by public notification so directs. Prior to the formation of the State of Nagaland no notification was issued by the Governor of Assam directing that the said Act shall apply to those areas.

2. In view of the constitutional changes leading to the formation of State of Nagaland and the non-applicability of the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution to Nagaland it is not now possible to apply the Act to these districts by the issue of a notification. Parliamentary legislation is thus necessary to apply the Act to the said districts of the State of Nagaland. The Bill seeks to give effect to this object.
